2.0 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- This court has personal specific jurisdiction pursuant to 28 USC Section 1331 and 47 USC Section 227.

- This Court has personal specific jurisdiction over Defendant because 2.3 defendant made calls to Plaintiff in this District.

3.0 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

- 3.1 This is an action for damages brought by an individual consumer for violations of the TCPA, a federal statute enacted in response to widespread public outrage about the proliferation of intrusive and nuisance telemarketing practices.
- 3.2 Senator Hollings, the TCPA's sponsor, described these call as "the scourge of modern civilization. They wake us up in the morning; they interrupt our dinner at night; they force the sick and elderly out of be; they hound us until we want to rip the telephone out of the wall."
- 3.3 According to findings by the FCC, the agency congress vested with authority to issue regulations implementing the TCPA, such calls are prohibited because, as Congress found, automated or prerecorded telephone calls are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls.
- 3.4 The national DNC registry allows consumers to register their telephone numbers and thereby indicate their desire not to receive telephone solicitations at those numbers. Plaintiff hereby requests a copy of Defendants DNC Policy.
- 3.5 The TCPA regulations define "telemarketing" as "the initiation of a telephone call or message for the purpose of encouraging the purchase or rental of, or investment in, property, goods, or services."
- 3.6 Telemarketing occurs when the context of a call indicates that it was initiated and transmitted to a person for the purpose of promoting property, goods, or services.
- 3.7 Neither the TCPA nor its implementing regulations require an explicit mention of a good, product, or service where the implication of an improper purpose is "clear from the context."

Case 3:21-cv-00798-X-BN Document 3 Filed 04/07/21 Page 3 of 25 PageID 7

- 3.8 In other words, "offers that are part of an overall marketing campaign to sell property, goods, or services constitute" telemarketing under the TCPA.
- 3.9 If a call is not deemed telemarketing, a Defendant must nevertheless demonstrate that it obtained the Plaintiffs prior express consent.
- 3.10 The FCC has issued rulings and clarified that consumers are entitled to the same consent-based protections for text messages.
- 3.11 "Unsolicited telemarketing phone calls or text messages, by their nature, invade the privacy and disturb the solitude of their recipients."
- 3.12 Plaintiff has been harmed by Defendants' acts because his privacy has been violated. Plaintiff was subject to annoying and harassing telephone calls (texts) that constitute a nuisance.
- 3.13 Telemarketers must obey the prohibitions in the TCPA.
- 3.14 Telemarketing is defined as "a plan, program, or campaign which is conducted to induce the purchase of goods or services or charitable contribution by use of one or more telephones and which involves more than one interstate telephone call.
- 3.15 Plaintiff establishes injury in fact, if he or she suffered "an invasion of a legally protected interest" that is "concrete and particularized" and "actual or imminent, not conjectural or hypothetical."
- 3.16 Plaintiff has the precise harm and infringe the same privacy interests Congress sought to protect in enacting the TCPA.
- 3.17 Plaintiffs "express consent" is not an element of Plaintiffs prima facie case, but is an affirmative defense for which the Defendant bears the burden of proof.

- 3.18 One single unsolicited marketing text or call is all it takes for a Plaintiff to have standing and bring suit against a violator of the TCPA.
- 3.19 The TCPA does not bar all business-related text messaging, but instead, focuses, in part, on cellular calls and text messages that are for the purpose of soliciting new or additional business.
- 3.20 Defendants actions are a pattern and practice over time.
- 3.21 Defendants, in its alleged violation, was aware of the conduct and allowed it to continue.
- 3.22 The impersonal and generic nature of Defendants text message(s), demonstrate that Defendant utilized an ATDS in transmitting the message.
- 3.23 Text message advertisements and the use of a short code, support an inference that the text messages use ATDS.
- 3.24 Plaintiff has alleged facts sufficient to infer text messages were sent using ATDS use of a short code and volume of mass messaging alleged would be impractical without use of an ATDS.
- 3.25 Defendant used a "long code" to transmit a text to the Plaintiff. A long code is a standard 10-digit phone number that enabled Defendant to send SMS text messages en masse, while deceiving recipients into believing that the message was personalized. Defendant can copy and past and send hundreds of characters out with a few clicks.
- 3.26 Long codes work as follows: Private companies known as SMS gateway providers have contractual arrangements with mobile carriers to transmit two-way SMS traffic. These SMS gateway providers send and receive SMS traffic to an from the mobile phone networks SMS centers which are responsible for relaying those messages to the intended mobile phone. This allows for the transmission of a large number of SMS messages to and from a long code.

- 3.27 Specifically, upon information and belief, Defendant utilized a combination of hardware and software systems to send the text messages at issue in this case. The systems utilized by Defendant have the capacity of store telephone numbers and to dial such number from a list.
- 3.28 Defendants unsolicited calls/text message(s) caused Plaintiff actual harm, including invasion of his privacy, aggravation, annoyance, intrusion on seclusion, trespass, and conversion. Defendants text messages also inconvenienced Plaintiff and caused disruption of his daily life.
- 3.29 Unwanted "Robocalls" are the number one complaint in America today. Americans received over 58 billion robocalls just last year.
- 3.30 Plaintiff estimates he has received tens of thousands of unauthorized and unwanted text messages in his lifetime from telemarketers. Some have been from repeat violators and some have been from single call/text violators. The Bureau of Labor Statistics tells us there are 134,800 telemarketers in the USA. If this information is correct American consumers could quite possibly receive 369.31 calls per day and we have to tell the telemarketers is to place us on their do not call list and we won't hear from them in another 12 months, and then process begins all over again? Plaintiff does not want to have his phone ring or text 369.31 times a day from telemarketers. Plaintiff does not even want one telemarketer to call him. There is a reason they say we as a nation may disagree on many issues, but when it comes to unwanted telemarketing (Robocalls/texts) we all agree that we do not like them.
- 3.31 The contempt from Senator Hollings was he even wanted to do away with all telemarketers, period. Plaintiffs pleading as mentioned above are clear and give an insight on where Plaintiff set of mind. How he wants to left alone and unbothered by telemarketing calls/texts.

- 3.32 The do not call provisions of the TCPA cover any plan, program or campaign to sell goods or services through interstate phone calls. This includes calls by telemarketers who solicit consumers, often on behalf of third party sellers.
- 3.33 The TCPA has a "safe harbor" for inadvertent mistakes. If a telemarketer can show that, as part of its routine business practice, it meets all the requirements of the safe harbor, it will not be subject to civil penalties or sanctions for mistakenly calling a consumer who has asked for no more calls, or for calling a person on the registry.
- 3.34 Plaintiffs complaint seeks money damages and injunctive relief from Defendants illegal conduct.
- 3.35 This private cause of action is a straight forward provision designed to achieve a straightforward result. Congress enacted the law to protect against invasions of privacy that were harming people. The law empowers each person to protect his own personal rights. Violations of the law are clear, as is the remedy.
- 3.36 The TCPA was enacted to prevent companies like Defendant from invading Plaintiffs' privacy as explained in paragraph 3.27 and 3.28.
- 3.37 Defendant(s) uses telemarketing to obtain new customers.
- 3.38 If Defendant(s) want to avoid a TCPA lawsuit, all they have to do is not break the laws in the TCPA.

4.0 VICARIOUS LIABILITY

4.1 At all times relevant the the events giving rise to this lawsuit, Defendant acted through its agents and is therefore liable for such actions pursuant of vicarious liability principles.

4.2 Whenever it is stated herein that Defendant engaged in any act or omission, the statement includes the acts or omissions by Defendant, its agents, its employees, its representatives and others with actual or apparent authority to act on behalf of and bind the Defendant.

5.0 QUESTIONS OF LAW

- 5.1 There are well defined and nearly identical questions of law and fact that affect all parties. Such common questions of law and fact include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 6.09 On Wednesday October 21,2020 at 10:22 AM Plaintiff received an email from Defendant from their email jonathan@positivehousebuyers.com. The contract from the email showed Defendants name A&C Capital Interests LLC. to be behind the telemarketing campaign the basis of this lawsuit.
- 6.10 Plaintiff blew off Defendants unwanted telemarketing advances.
- 6.11 A couple of weeks later, upon information and belief, Plaintiff received another telemarketing text message from Defendant, on December 9, 2020 at 9:08 AM, from phone number 469-356-0801. It was the same generic pre-written templates of an impersonal text and was almost identical to the previous texts. The telephone system Defendant used constitutes an ATDS as defined by 47 USC Section 227(a)(1).
- 6.12 Part of Plaintiffs discovery will will be finding out if Defendant has a company wide pattern or practice of engaging in the alleged illegal practices at issue in my case. Plaintiff is proffering that a number of similar incidents have occurred around the country to other everyday people.
- 6.13 The first and last text message Defendant transmitted to the Plaintiff are the same wording.
- 6.14 The texts Defendant sent Plaintiff only identify them coming from Alec. A&C Capital Interests LLC is founded to Jonathan Aguilar and Chase Chappell
- 6.15 The text placed by the Defendant was not necessitated by an emergency.

decreased phone battery life, need for more frequent re-charging of the battery, annoyance, and frustration.

6.27 As a result of Defendant illegal conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to $500 in damages for each such violation of the TCPA. This is for each and every violation, whether Defendant committed multiple violations with a single text. The number of texts are irrelevant.

7.0 STANDING

- 7.01 Standing is proper under Article III of the Constitution of the United States of America because Plaintiff's claims state: (a) a valid injury in fact; (b) which is traceable to the conduct of Defendant; and (c) is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.
- 7.02 Plaintiff's injury in fact must be both "concrete" and "particularized" in order to satisfy the requirements of Article III of the Constitution.
- 7.03 For an injury to be "concrete" it must be a de facto injury, meaning that it actually exists. In Plaintiffs case, Defendant sent a text messages to Plaintiff's cellular telephone, using an ATDS. Such text messages are a nuisance, an invasion of privacy, and an expense to Plaintiff. All three of these injuries are concrete and de facto.
- 7.04 For an injury to be "particularized" means that the injury must "affect the Plaintiff in a personal and individual way." In Plaintiffs case, Defendant invaded Plaintiffs privacy and peace by texting his cellular telephone, and did this with the use of an ATDS. Furthermore, Plaintiff was distracted and annoyed by having to take time, opening and reading the text message. All of these injuries are particularized and specific to Plaintiff.
- 7.05 Plaintiffs case passes The "Traceable to the Conduct of Defendant" Prong.

- 7.06 The second prong to establish standing at the pleadings phase is that Plaintiff must allege facts to show that its injuries are traceable to the conduct of Defendant. The above text message was directly and explicitly linked to Defendant. The number from which the text was sent belongs to Defendant. This text message is the sole source of Plaintiff's and the Class's injuries. Therefore, Plaintiff has illustrated facts that show that her injuries are traceable to the conduct of Defendant.
- 7.07 Plaintiffs case passes the "Injury is Likely to be Redressed by a Favorable Judicial Opinion" Prong,
- 7.08 The third prong to establish standing at the pleadings phase requires Plaintiff to allege facts to show that the injury is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial opinion In the present case, Plaintiff's Conclusion include a request for damages for each text message made by Defendant, as authorized by statute in 47 USC. Section 227. The statutory damages were set by Congress and specifically redress the financial damages suffered by Plaintiff.
- 7.09 Plaintiff, under his 14 Amendment rights, has right to bring this action to be heard in front of a jury.
- 7.10 Because all standing requirements of Article III of the US Constitution have been met, Plaintiff has standing to sue Defendant on the stated claims.

- 8.01 Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the above paragraphs.
- 8.02 Defendant violated 47 USC Section 227(b)(1)(A)(iii) by placing (non emergency) solicitation texts to the Plaintiff.

- 12.03 Defendant must pay Plaintiff $500 for each text placed to the Plaintiff.

- 13.01 Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the above paragraphs.

- 13.03 Defendant failed to provide a call back number in the initial text message. A violation of 47 CFR Section 64.1200(b)(2).

- 14.05 Defendant must pay Plaintiff $1500 for each violation and text transmitted to Plaintiff.

15.02 Pursuant to 47 USC Section 227(b)(3)(A) and TBCC Section 305.053, the court following the trial of this action should issue an order permanently enjoining Defendant and its agents from engaging in any further conduct with respect to Plaintiff which violates the rules and regulations of 47 USC Section 227.

16.04 Plaintiff seeks to recover actual damages, including his damages for mental anguish, to be proven at trial. Mental anguish is one of the torts for which Plaintiff can recover mental-anguish damages without proving physical injury.

TRIAL BY JURY

17.01Plaintiff demands a trial by jury under the 7th Amendment of the US Constitution.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has read Dondi Properties Corp. v. Commerce Savs. & Loan Ass'n which pretty much establishes the conduct for attorneys and references abusive litigation tactics from attorneys conduct. Plaintiff believes if Defendant would read Dondi and instruct their attorney to send copies of the filings and emails between the Plaintiff and Defendants attorney, this would keep the Defendants attorney from "poking a stick at Plaintiffs ribs" just to upset him and try to prolong the hours he will be charging his client.

Plaintiff requests a copy of Defendants Do-Not-Call Policy to be sent to Plaintiffs address below.

Plaintiff requests everything he has asked for in his Complaint and other relief as the Court deems necessary.
